The Show of the Year

Mwaka Kogwa

On Sunday, July 17, Zanzibar celebrated its largest festival - "Mwaka Kogwa", which translates to "the show of the year"!

The festival is a celebration of the Persian New Year and includes many rituals performed to bring luck and prosperity to the New Year.

Our guests were able to join the festivities and have a true Zanzibar experience by taking local 'dala dala' transportation to the event!

Fun Fact Friday

Jambiani Villas 'Fun Fact Friday' is a social media initiative created to inform and spark an interest in learning more about life in Zanzibar.

We share tips, recommendations, unknown Zanzibar lifestyle facts, and useful information for you to get to know the island better!
